

A Little Quick Guide

Hi! Here's a quick guide I put together for when you start working with us — just so it's easy to coordinate. I'll be there to walk you through everything at first, so please don't worry about anything 😊

✦ THREE THINGS I'D LOVE YOUR HELP WITH

1

Cold Brew

daily

- Add coffee grounds + cold water to the jug.
- Leave it ~12 hours (overnight is perfect).
- Strain & keep in the fridge. Make a fresh batch each day.

2

Cleaning

basic

- Tidy anything lying around.
- Make the bed (quick is fine).
- Laundry → hang outside; fold the next day.

3

Cooking

b'fast + dinner

- Breakfast: the 2 recipes below — batch a few.
- Dinner: one big dish to last ~2 days — shrimp, squid or chicken + veg.

Buy: 🐟 fish market — squid/shrimp (cash) · 🌿 market — veg (cash) · 🛒 Donki — chicken

🇵🇹 THE TWO BREAKFASTS TO START WITH

👉 Aim for ~14–18g protein per portion: use about 1 scoop of our soy protein per serving (check the tub's label), and use soy milk — it has more protein than oat milk.

Overnight Oats

~14–18g protein / portion

5 min + chill

makes 4

INGREDIENTS (4 PORTIONS)

- 1½ cups rolled oats
- 4 scoops our soy protein (1 per portion)
- 2½ cups soy milk
- 4 tbsp chia seeds · fruit to top

STEPS

1. Mix oats, soy protein, chia & soy milk until no lumps.
2. Divide into 4 jars, cover, chill overnight (4–5 hrs+).
3. Each morning: stir, add a splash of milk, top with fruit.

Soy Protein Jelly (pudding)

~14–18g protein / portion

10 min + set

makes 4

INGREDIENTS (4 CUPS)

- 2½ cups soy milk
- 4 scoops our soy protein (1 per portion)
- 1 packet gelatin (or 1 tsp agar)
- Optional: a little honey/vanilla + fruit

STEPS

1. Warm half the soy milk (don't boil); whisk in gelatin until dissolved.
2. Whisk soy protein into the cool half until smooth, then combine.
3. Pour into 4 cups, chill 2 hrs+ until set. Top with fruit.

💖 No pressure at all — to start, even just one dish is perfectly fine, and we'll build from there together. I'll be right there to guide you first. Please let me know if anything here is unclear or you have any concerns — otherwise let's go with this for now and elevate it together as we go.
